John Wenner began his real estate career in Arizona during 1994 after boldly moving the family across the country from Michigan leaving behind a 10 year successful corporate career as a senior negotiator and having one goal in mind: to sell real estate in Arizona with his wife. The amazing part of the journey is that neither John nor his wife knew any one in Arizona and arrived with minimal financial support. With a plan, dedication and lots of hard work a phenomenal real estate career was launched. John has received numerous sales awards and held the position of Managing Broker for a firm of over 500 agents.

Enhancing one's skill is a belief that John deeply believes. John is only one of 103 individuals through out the world and currently the only individual in all of the greater Phoenix metropolitan area that have the distinction of holding the coveted DREI, Distinguished Real Estate Instructor credential from the Real Estate Educators Association. His passion to "add value to others" became an over whelming desire and now has over 3,000 hours training and speaking.

Through out his real estate career John has obtained an Arizona brokers license, and the following professional credentials; CNE (Certified Negotiation Expert), GRI (Graduate REALTOR® Institute), CRS (Certified Residential Specialists), and MRE (Arizona Master of Real Estate Society).

While serving his country in the United States Marine Corps for 10 years, John worked diligently attending college at night and accomplished his goal of graduating with honors and earning a Bachelors degree in Business, with an emphasis in Mathematics and Pre-Law.

John is very active in the men's ministry at La Casa de Cristo Lutheran Church. John's hobbies include; Golfing, Fishing (Minnesota - Walleye), Hiking, and Traveling with his wife.
