

MEET YOUR FACULTY

Steve Urie, has been a real estate licensee and residential property manager for 21 years and a designated broker for 18 of those years. He holds the GRI and ABR designations. He started a property management business with only 30 units and expanded to 850 units within 18 months. Eventually, his business expanded to two offices, five employees, nine on-site managers, a maintenance department and a landscaping department. Six years ago he down sized his property management to about 150 single family properties

Steve is a founding member, past president and board member of the National Association of Residential Property Managers and has served as the association's chairman for their Membership Committee, Educational Committee, Certification Committee, and Grievance Committee. He holds the RMP and MPM designations and has been an instructor for the certification courses for those designations in the areas of Office Policy and Procedures, Marketing Your Property Management Business, and Maintenance Policies and Procedures.
